

Lost in a sea of sample pots? not sure where to go from here or just needing advice to pull a cohesive colour scheme together?

Colour

- Price for this package is just £100 (50% refundable if Haus Creative are selected to carry out the decorating work)
- Package includes:
- Up to 30 min consultation to discuss the atmosphere you are looking to create and the colours you love or hate (this can be remote or face to face)
- Walk through the colour wheel and various paint charts of designer paints that are available and advice on the best finishes and approach to undertake the work yourself or to hire someone.
- 4 sample boards (60 x 40cm) painted in the potential scheme colours that you can place in your rooms to see how the light affects the colour throughout the day (no more teeny patches of paint everywhere) and an opportunity to view other boards created of the top trend colours of the year. Additional boards can be produced for £10 each
- Mood board pack with images and inspiration of a cohesive scheme.

Receive the advice you need, so you can transform your space yourself.

Vision

- Price for package starting at £250
- This package includes:
- Remote service or face to face with an in-home consultation (1 hour) and production of a full vision pack (per room/area)
- Fact finding and developing your brief. We will talk about your style, your needs, your budget, what to keep and what you want to change.
- Measurements of the room are captured and scale floor plans will be created in 2D and 3D. This will give you the proposed layout and available space for furnishings as well as mood product board to create the right environment and atmosphere.
- Mood board pack of possible colour schemes/palettes, style, lighting, hints and tips and images to help inspire you and an additional 30 min follow up to discuss further.
- 3D diagram of the new scheme and layout (Note: Farrow & ball colour renders are displayed as part of the software, but any colours can be used. I am also a Tikkurila ambassador and can colour match any designer brand paints).
